For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

8. Deadlines The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive proofs of claim by the following deadlines.	Deadline for all creditors to file a proof of claim (except governmental units): Filing deadline: 7/26/16 Deadline for governmental units to file a proof of claim: Filing deadline: 180 days from the date of filing A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A proof of claim form may be filed online at the Court's website at www.flmb.uscourts.gov, or obtained at www.uscourts.gov or at any bankruptcy clerk's office. If you do not file a proof of claim by the deadline, you might not be paid on your claim. For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.
